

Supporting Character

Draw a picture of the supporting character from the book. Write four important things about that character.

A large, empty rounded rectangular box intended for drawing a picture of the supporting character.A large, empty rounded rectangular box intended for drawing a picture of the supporting character.A large, empty rounded rectangular box intended for writing four important things about the character.A large, empty rounded rectangular box intended for writing four important things about the character.